Sign Up process

User clicks the "Sign Up" button

Check: System verifies if all mandatory fields are completed.

No → System displays a message: "Please fill in all mandatory '*' fields."

Yes → Check: System checks the database to see if a company with the entered registration number and country already exists.

Yes → System displays a message: "A company with this registration number and country is already registered. Please contact its users."

No → Create Company Account: System creates a new database entry with the information of the new company.

Check: System checks the database to see if a user (Partner User) with the entered email and already exists.

Yes → System adds company to the user profile and displays a message: "Company added to your user profile."

No → Send Invitation: System generates an invitation with link for the user who registered, enabling them to create their user account.
Show notification: To proceed follow the received email.

End

User receives the invitation and can continue the registration process to create their user account.